Police Officers Promoted

ASHEBORO, NC – At a ceremony on Friday, August 1, four Asheboro Police Officers were recognized for their dedication and service by being promoted to higher rankings within the Asheboro Police Department. Chief of Police Ralph Norton presented the awards to Sgt. Eddie Howell, Sgt. Ricci D’Angelo, Master Police Officer Tim Marlowe and Master Police Officer Mike Jones.

The promotions included:

- Sgt. Eddie Howell was promoted to the rank of Lieutenant and assumes command of a patrol team in the Uniformed Patrol Division of the Operations Bureau (A-Team).
- Sgt. Ricci D’Angelo was promoted to the rank of Lieutenant and assumes command of the Vice/Narcotics Unit.
- Master Police Officer (MPO) Tim Marlowe was promoted to the rank of Sergeant and will be supervising the Special Services Division of the Support Operations Bureau.
- Master Police Officer (MPO) Mike Jones was promoted to the rank of Sergeant and will temporarily train his replacement in the Vice/Narcotics Unit and then assume the duties as a patrol supervisor on B-Team.

“Everyday police officers put their lives at risk to help protect the community. We are proud of each of our guys and the service they provide. We couldn’t be more proud,” said Chief Norton.
